

The Element War

By Melody Wang, grade 4

Sept.10, 4113

It was a harsh and rainy day. Rain poured down all day. There were three parts of the Earth. Sky, Land and Sea. They used to live in harmony. But One day they separated. It's been separated since The February 21, 1199 war.

Christiana was a strong, tall single mom with three kids and lives on Land. Their kids' names are Marco, Jackson and Leah. Christiana was in the kitchen of her home when she heard the danger alarm go off. MOM! It's ok, let's just let's go see what's happening. With Leah's eyelids fluttering they finally went to see what was happening? THREE, TWO, ONE! Warning this is not a drill! I repeat this is not a drill. The Sky and Sea has decided to attack the Land! Warning all kids under 15 have to go to the secret bunker located underneath the police center. Ok well don't worry, soon, she was interrupted by the T.V. All parents and teens over the age of 15 have to fight for the Land. Since Christiana was 41 she had to fight. Quick don't panic and let's just go over to the police bunker and see what's actually happening? They made their way over to the police center but oh boy was there a lot of hollering and crying. Leah, Marco and Jackson were all younger than 15 so they all were going to have to stay in the bunker. Their conversation was interrupted by the police. Ahoy ladies and gentlemen as you heard the Sea and Sky are attacking. I need all kids to say goodbye to your parents right now and head down to the bunker. Bye mom, bye sweetheart. Off they went.

Big tears few down Christiana's cheeks, but soon the police came to Christiana. Ma'am I know it's hard but we have to fight for our safety and other's. Christina's husband already died by trying to protect Earth's land. I know I'm going to help said Christiana. Two hours after the drop off, not only was Christiana's heart broken, but every single parent's heart was broken too. Christiana made her way to the appliance shop. (This appliance shop is where you can buy fighting supplies). She finally got there and she could only afford one single Death frisbee. So, she bought the death frisbee and then drove home. Christiana quickly started to assemble the death frisbee. Once she was finished assembling the frisbee she got a call.

Hello. Hello ma'am this is the Land police. We just wanted to call you because we need you to come to the police station now. Christiana quickly summoned to the police station. When she got there, she saw her son Marco. Why was he there? Hey mom, I have to fight against the Sky and sea. What but you're fourteen. I know but I'm the oldest kid there and there's not enough parents who are fighting. In an embarrassed tone the police quickly summoned and told her the truth. Sorry ma'am but we need him to fight against them. HOW IS THAT FAIR FOR HIM AND ME! He might get injured really bad. Christiana quickly went to check with THE WARDEN. She quickly summoned to talk to him. She asked, does my son actually need to fight? Yes ma'am. Christiana quickly took Marco home.

On the way home, she stopped at a weird restaurant. Mom, what are we doing here? I'm just protecting you. The place wasn't actually a restaurant, it was a secret underground bunker. Her and Marco went in. Christiana pulled out a weird little card. The card was the restaurant's membership card. Christiana quickly went to the reception and called help. DING, DING, DING. A couple minutes later a lady named Cindy came up. Christiana quickly showed Cindy the membership card. Then Christiana pulled Marco to a staircase. Christiana told Marco to go down the staircase and stay there. Then she finally told him that the restaurant Was actually a secret bunker that Christiana's co-worker made for their Team and them for a moment like this. Marco did decide to go down to the Bunker. When he left the shut closed.

Christiana decides to not mope around. So, she tries to get home. HELP HELP, HELP, THERE TRYING TO ATTACK! GET HELP! Christiana jumped out of her seat and started sprinting towards the battle field. OOH NOO I forgot my death frisbee at home. Well she had no time to go get it because the war was about to start, she would have to fight bare handed. She looked around and saw the Sky and Sea coming our way. In a sprint she barely made it on the battle field. Ok this was the time she's been dreading for. The War. Land was getting prepared while Sea and Sky were already waiting. Once those barricades opened it was go time. CHAAARGE!

Not even a Minute passed and the grass was blood red and there were already people dead! Christiana was head to head with the Sea leader. She quickly found another Death frisbee in someone dead's pocket. She quickly used it and boy did it help Christiana. She was able to get to the gate. She tried to go up the gate but they pulled her down. She fought about thirty-five more enemies and then the rescue helicopter came. She couldn't make it on because there were too many people on it, and believe it or not It was all her enemies. So that left none of a choice but to fight the rest of the enemies.

She thought she couldn't do it but then thought about how her husband Kept on fighting when he thought he couldn't. He did it for their land. So, Christiana did what her hero did. She kept on fighting. In her head she had a mentor and it was her dead husband. All she could hear was Screaming and clanging. But in her head, she heard. GO, KEEP FIGHTING! So not only did Christiana kill basically all enemies she was able to escape all the enemies. After all the enemies were done, her kids were released. The police dropped off, Leah and Jackson and Christiana's co-worker dropped off Marco. That was it the family was finally reunited! All of Christiana's tears poured down her cheek. After they went home Christiana told herself. With her mentor She could do anything. Always with courage and braveness.
